

CHRISTOFFERSEN

FOR STATE REP

Community First, Politics Last

Elect Christian Christoffersen—Real Service. Local Solutions. No Politics-as-Usual.

Christian Christoffersen is a Monroe County native, volunteer firefighter, and your candidate for Pennsylvania House District 115. He's running a grassroots campaign focused on fixing real issues for everyday people—no career politicians, no fancy endorsements, just practical change. Christian pledges to serve only three terms, ensuring true local accountability.

Priority Initiatives:

- Expand fire/EMS training electives in high schools and train the next generation of lifesavers
- Ban Pharmacy Benefit Managers (PBMs) in PA, protecting patients and local pharmacies
- Tax credits for ADA retrofits and high-visibility stair striping for safer, accessible communities
- Mandate HSAs for all insurance companies to support families
- Waive local taxes for first responders and give tax credits for volunteer service
- More AP courses and seats—help students earn college credits and save money
- Stop unchecked warehouse development, preserve open space, and lower permit costs
- Ban “kill” shelters and support compassionate animal care.
- Freeze/reduce property tax for residents until property is sold or transferred
- Monthly Medicare & Social Security classes led by local professionals for seniors

Christian's Promise:

- 3 terms only - no career politicians
- Every vote and policy will put Monroe County's families, seniors, and students first
- Community events where every voice is heard

Ready for real change from someone who serves, not someone who just talks? Elect Christian Christoffersen for PA House District 115.
